Terrior: Two vineyards - Upper Galilee, Terra rossa soil & Judean hills, Limestone.

Lewinsohn's white wines do not undergo malolactic fermentation in order to maintain their naturally high acidity and balance.

Tasting Notes: An elegant Chardonnay, its nose exhibits stone fruit, floral notes, minerality and a luxurious sea breeze and hazelnuts.

The palate follows through with well-balanced acidity alongside high concentration and a generously long finish showing off citrus fruit and white flowers. This wine is approachable and enjoyable now and will age well for a decade.
