Release Date: August 2024

Production: 1236 Cases and 100 Magnums

Variety: Chardonnay

Vineyards: Upper Galilee (Dalton) & Judean Hills (Tzuba)

Alcohol: 13%

Terroir: Terra Rossa - Upper Galilee;
Limestone - Judean Hills

Winemaking: Fermented in Burgundy oak barrels, aged Sur lie for 10 months.

Lewinsohn Chardonnay does not undergo malolactic fermentation in order to maintain its naturally high acidity and balance.

Tasting Notes: An elegant Chardonnay; its nose exhibits stone fruit, floral notes, peach, minerality and hazelnuts.

The palate follows through with well-balanced acidity alongside high concentration and a generously long finish, showing citrus fruit and white flowers.

This wine is approachable and enjoyable now and will age well for a decade.
